

THE KNIGHT LETTER

SACRED HEART COUNCIL #2842

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Fall 2006

Brothers,

As we start off our fall season, I once again have the honor and privilege of serving you as your Grand Knight. Our council has been blessed by a membership who takes pride in our council and continues to keep it active and alive in our church and community. In order to keep our council moving forward, we need our members to continue to step up and take an active part. Maybe it's buying and selling Big raffle or 20 week club tickets, signing up to sell Christmas trees, helping out with youth night or just taking part and coming to a meeting. We don't ask for much of your time, but to keep a council going all we ask for is a little. And believe me your help will be appreciated and you will feel great helping your fellow brothers. Please consider this request. If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact me. Thanks and may God Bless you and our council in all we do this year.

*Fraternally,
Pat Ferrara, GK*

Family Night Notice - Friday nights are family night and as brothers we welcome the chance to have our families together. However, because of the limited amount of storage at the Council, please have your children bring a game or some form of entertainment to keep them occupied. Also please remember that it is each members responsibility to supervise their children when at the Council.
